

Early Career Award

This award honors members of the World Languages teaching profession for outstanding innovations and related achievements in the classroom during the first three years of teaching. One award is given each year to an elementary, middle, secondary, or post-secondary educator in Missouri.

This award will be presented at the FLAM annual fall conference.

Criteria for Nomination

- Nominees must be current FLAM members in good standing.
- Nominees must be within the first three years of experience as a World Language educator at any academic level.
- Nomination may be made only by current FLAM members.
- Self-nominations not allowed.

The nominee must:

- Submit a current resume/CV including the following:
 - Educational background
 - Teaching experience
 - Recent travel relevant to teaching
 - Membership in other professional organizations
 - Professional achievements: Activities and contributions, especially involving service to school foreign language programs in curriculum development, assessment, or outreach in support of World Languages
- Statement including philosophy of teaching, importance of language study, successful qualities of teaching and professional involvement, description of reasons of innovations, goals, benefits, and the effect of teaching the target language(s) in your school/district.
- Request and provide two letters of recommendation to the person making the nomination BEFORE March 15, 2022, so the person nominating you can submit everything before that deadline.
